

PARK BOARD CALLS $120,000 BOND ISSUE ELECTION

Park expansion to benefit all areas

The success of the bond issue to be submitted to Arlington Hts. voters October 26 will provide for the youth greater playground facilities.

It will provide, also, entertainment for men and women as spectators and players in evening baseball games, will create parking space adjacent to the present field house and will increase parking area in the business district.

It will also place Arlington Hts. recreation facilities on a par with any village in the metropolitan area.

The major land purchase of 10 acres south of the South school has been made possible because of the willingness of the Catholic Archbishop of Chicago to release holdings there, provided a similar tract of land is available. He has tentatively given approval to several such tracts.

Owners of the remaining ten acres are willing to go along with the park board. This land can be secured at a nominal figure.

Arlington Heights park board has not selected a particular site for the proposed southeast park, but deems $30,000 is ample to secure the amount of land needed.

The northwest park is near the new athletic field purchased by the high school board for intramural sports. This tract was presented to the park board by a subdivider and is in the center of the newly-developed Arlington Park and Arlington Ridge area. It is estimated $15,000 will be needed for grading, drainage and preliminary planting.

Most popular of all six projects will be the night lighting of two soft ball diamonds. Parks of nearly all adjoining communities are flood-lighted. Petitions asking for such installations are on file with Arlington Heights park board.

Use of a portion of the railroad parking has been under discussion by the village board and chamber of commerce for some time. The village board has been asking for permission to use part of the existing parking for such a purpose.

Until now, the park board has withheld permission. Engineers have made tentative drawings showing how parking space could be made available without destroying aesthetic beauty of the parks that surround the railroad property.

In acquiring vacant land near Recreation park for auto parking, the park board would be following the footsteps of the high school board, which last year purchased lots for such a purpose. Home owners near the field house will probably welcome similar action on the part of Arlington Hts. park board.

Thieves visit Inverness golf club Monday

Inverness golf club at Palatine was entered some time during the early evening hours Monday and two slot machines broken open.

The apartment of the manager was also entered and $400 taken. No attempt was made by the raiders to take any liquors or cigarettes. The pro shop was left unharmed.

Police are investigating the case, checking up on finger prints and other clues.

Lutheran parish house to make way for new youth building

The classified section of this issue carries an invitation for bids for the removal of the present parish house of St. Peter Lutheran church at 114 West Eastman, Arlington Heights.

The proposed youth building of the congregation will occupy that site. The church board is taking the initial step in the new building program.

Refuse $175,000 bid for Sider Foods factory

The auction bid of $175,000 for the building recently vacated by Sider Foods was refused by the receiver of the structure at the auction sale of the assets of the firm September 10.

It is reported a prominent office equipment firm has made an offer of $212,000 for the property.

The construction cost of the structure erected by Mayfair products was over a quarter million dollars.

New Lutheran school teacher begins duties

LESTER RUSH is the new sixth grade teacher at St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights. Rush was installed Sunday, September 19, at an evening service at St. Peter church.

He also will be youth counselor for the church young people.

Wife of constable discovers husband has 'stolen' car

When Constable Ray Lesch of Wheeling arrived home Monday from a trip to Arlington Heights his wife said, "that is not the car you were driving when you left home."

It wasn't. In the meantime, Arlington police had sent out a radio call that Dave Bogart's car had been stolen. Ray immediately phoned C. M. Behrens, whose office both men had visited, and found that the Lesch car was still where it had been left.

The cars were the same make and both showed several years wear.

Congregation at cornerstone service

600 music-lovers join concert group, 3 days to go

Within 48 hours after 120 Arlington Heights, Palatine and Mt. Prospect residents attended a kick-off dinner Monday night for Community Concert membership, more than 600 music-lovers in this area had subscribed to the association.

The announcement was made public Tuesday by Gale Blocki, Jr. of Arlington Heights, president of the non-profit group who stated "solicitors found an enthusiastic audience when it came time to sell tickets."

The kick-off dinner was held Monday night at Mt. Prospect Country club and the drive began with a successful start Tuesday morning.

"Any person can be a member of the music-lovers group," Blocki stated. "If he is not contacted by one of the solicitors, he can bring his subscription to campaign headquarters at Fieber and Canadi, Arlington Heights."

The drive will positively close Saturday, September 25, at 6 p. m. There will be no single admission tickets for any of the concerts. The goal of the local group, which will encompass Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Palatine and other subdivisions, will be 1,000 memberships at $6 each, including $1 federal tax.

MEMBERS OF the non-profit group will hear at least four famous-name concert groups during the winter theater season who will be brought to Arlington high school auditorium. All dues collected will be used for securing the artists.

"The basic cornerstone of the plan is fine music without any financial risk or local financial responsibility," Herbert Fox of Wilmette, national field director of the organization, reported at the Monday banquet.

He told also of successful establishment of similar organizations in Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Elmhurst, Highland Park, Downers Grove and Evanston, and growth of the movement to include 1,500 towns in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

"A community is judged by the cultural activity of the town or that brought from the outside," Blocki said. "The association will give local music-lovers an opportunity to enjoy good music as neighbors without going to the loop or paying twice as much to see the same attractions."

Mrs. Peter B. Atwood, Arlington Heights, was in charge of the dinner and decorations. Mrs. A. H. Franzen is general chairman of the local group.

The famous Philharmonic Piano Quartet will definitely be one of the four attractions brought to Arlington Heights if the local Community Concert association is formed, stated Fox.

Formed two years ago, the personnel of this group are Juilliard graduates. Max Walner is leader; Bertha Melnik and Ada Kopetz are winners of Leavenworth and Naumberg awards; and John Scales is a protégé of the late Madame Samoroff-Stowick.

Their program will include classical favorites and popular musical comedy selections.

Other attractions that may be brought to the Arlington Heights area:

Dorothy Maynor, Negro soprano; Helen Traubel, Wagnerian star; Igor Gorin, popular radio and operatic baritone; St. Louis Sinfonietta; Leonard Warren, Metropolitan baritone; Polyna Stoska, Metropolitan star who staged a successful opening at Grant park; Columbia operatic quartet, and Albert Spaulding, violinist.

The attractions will be chosen by a local committee appointed by Blocki after the Saturday, 6 p. m. closing date.

HAVE YOU SEEN LET'S GO TO NITE SCHOOL?

Prospect, Prospect Heights, Palatine or surrounding area who has not received a bulletin concerning adult evening classes at Arlington high school, may secure one by calling Principal Knapp or Miss Elaine Kehe at Arlington Heights 200. Registration is October 4, 5, 6 and 7. Classes start October 11.

Village employee killed on birthday

ELDON B. BELSER, 34, of Palatine, operator of Arlington Heights disposal plant for three years, was killed instantly Saturday afternoon in an auto crash on Dundee road near Rand road.

His automobile (shown above) was almost completely demolished when he apparently lost control of the car and it veered off the road, crashing head-on into a tree.

The accident, which occurred on Belser's thirty-fourth birthday, took place two miles from his home near Quintens road and Northwest highway at 4:45 p.m.

Belser took charge of the Arlington Heights plant in 1945, after the death of George C. Harris, operator at that time. Belser had been working at the plant only three months when he assumed operator duties.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from Tharp funeral home, Palatine, with Rev. Hugo Linberger of St. Paul Ev. and Reformed church, Deerfield, officiating. Interment was at Ridgewood cemetery. Full military honors were accorded by VFW post 981, Arlington Heights.

Belser served in the army four years, and before that worked in Wheeling. He is survived by his wife Bessie Marie and daughter Sandra Marie, 18 months; and nine sisters and brothers, all of whom were at the funeral services.

Mayor Goedke, addressing Arlington Heights village board Monday night, stated: A tragic accident has taken the life of a good friend and faithful employee, Eldon Belser. Eldon took over the sewage disposal plant under tragic circumstances and soon demonstrated he was fully qualified for the job. We extend sincere sympathy to his wife and family.

Expect hospital issue to be on November ballot

A definite ruling on whether or not northwest suburban residents will get the chance to vote on incorporation of their area as a hospital authority is expected September 30.

Last Thursday, Cook County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki set that date after notifying attorneys for the 2,500 petitioners who seek placement of the issue on the November 2 ballot that a technical detail had held up his making a final order.

THE petitions for the special ballot were filed last May 19, and asked placement of the question as to whether residents want to incorporate for the purpose of building and maintaining a general hospital in the territory.

Attorney Arthur B. Weldon, representing petitioners, said no objections have been filed, and indicated the issue probably would be up for voting.

The area, he said, encompasses 75 to 80 square miles, and includes the following municipalities: Morton Grove, Golf, Glenview, Northbrook, Northfield, Wheeling, Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights.

ALSO included are those parts of Glenview and Northfield villages that lie within New Trier township; that part of Glenview within Maine and Niles townships, and Northfield township, except for the corporate areas of Glencoe and Wilmette.

Once approved in county court, and if voted, a hospital authority board will be selected. Weldon said, with powers to issue bonds up to 1½ per cent of the assessed valuation of personal and real estate properties in the area.

Village buys bookkeeping machine

Recent bids by Arlington Hts. village for a bookkeeping machine resulted in the choice of one manufactured by National Cash Register company, at a cost of $3,360.

Other quotations were received from Burroughs company and Sundstrand company, but the National machine was selected since it guaranteed a special service agreement of $70 per year and four inspections each year.

Village ordinance providing for house-moving was amended Monday night, also. Fees were raised from $10 to $25 and a $500 surety bond will be required to insure necessary cleaning and tree-trimming by the mover. Also, the mover must pay $25 per day every day the house is on a public street.

Sewer connection fees also were raised from $2 to $3.

Approval will mean expansion of park system for growing municipality

Announcement was made this week by Arlington Heights park district of a special election authorizing a bond issue of $120,000 for a park expansion program.

The expanded park program is necessary because of increased population due to activities of builders and the growing importance of Arlington Heights as a residential community.

The board has adopted a six-point program, which includes in the minds of members of the park board the most important things that need to be done.

The proposed park additions are the indirect result of survey covering the elementary schools and playground facilities in Arlington Heights today and what they should be within the next ten years.

That survey, announcement of which appeared in the Herald August 27, placed Arlington's population in 1950 at 8800, and by 1960 at 11,800.

The engineers who made the survey base their recommendation for separate playgrounds in various parts of the village to the two main barriers that bisect the village—the Northwest Highway and State road.

The proposed program means playgrounds and park facilities for all sections of the town.

The park board is ready to act now when desired land can be secured at a fraction of the cost that would later be necessary.

Present Recreation park acreage that means so much to Arlington Heights residents materialized 20 years ago when a group of foresighted citizens took the initiative in purchasing land, then on the northeast edge of the residential district.

If they had not acted at that time, the present park area would be just another residential section of Arlington.

A similar situation exists today on the south side. It is still possible to secure nearly 10 acres in one contiguous tract in the center of the southside residential area. At its border, 150 new homes are now being erected.

The special election, which has been called for October 26, will give voters and taxpayers an opportunity to express their desires.

Members of the park board feel they would be negligent as public servants if they did not call the election at this time.

Village seeks shovel for snow, slush

The chilly, rainy weather, ushered in Monday morning reminded Arlington Heights citizens to check on stadium boots and coal supplies.

Village aldermen also did some pre-winter checking Monday night when the question of what to do with the existing snow plow, slightly used, was brought before the bar.

THE VILLAGE is in the market for a new snow shovel, if the old one can be sold to a concern with more restricted snow duties. The mayor suggested Arlington race track as a possible customer, and the matter was referred to committee.

"Before we get a snow plow, we should have a truck that'll push the thing," one of the aldermen informed the board. Two of the five village trucks need $600 worth of repairs, he told the aldermen. Ray Becker, street superintendent, will see to it that the trucks are rejuvenated for speedy snow shoveling.

Village hall open evenings for voter registration

Arlington Heights village clerk Forrest Davis will accept voter registrations Tuesday, September 28, and Thursday, September 30, from 7 to 9 p.m. for the convenience of voters who cannot call during regular business hours.

Registrations will be accepted during regular business hours in the village clerk's office from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Wednesday, from 8 a.m. to noon. The last date of registration will be October 5.

Under the permanent registration law, any person who has changed an address must transfer before being eligible to vote in any election. For those who have moved to Illinois from another state, they must reside in Illinois for the past year, in the county for 90 days and the precinct for 30 days to be able to register.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 19, was: "MATTER"

The Golden Text was:
"Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the Lord your God" (Lev. 19:4).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible:
"And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. . . . There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one" (Acts 5:12, 14, 16).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
"The ancient Christians were healers. Why has this element of Christianity been lost? Because our systems of religion are governed more or less by our systems of medicine. . . . By trusting matter to destroy its own discord, health and harmony have been sacrificed. . . . We must seek the undivided garment, the whole Christ, as our first proof of Christianity, for Christ, Truth, alone can furnish us with absolute evidence" (pp. 146, 142).

A plus in any bus!

When you switch to Conoco Nth Motor Oil and an OIL-PLATED engine, you get these triple advantages . . .

(1) Extra protection from power-clogging sludge and carbon due to wear; (2) extra protection from metal-eating combustion acids; (3) extra protection from destructive "dry" friction starts.

Because Conoco Nth Motor Oil (Patented) fastens an extra film of lubricant so closely to metal surfaces that working parts are actually OIL-PLATED! This extra film stays up on cylinder walls . . . won't all drain down, even overnight. For plus performance . . . full-time protection . . . more miles per quart . . .

Arthur McElhose phoned the Herald office to inform us that these objects were milkweed butterflies flying South. This is a yearly occurrence that usually goes unnoticed because of blue skies, but the gray backdrop of Monday brought the migration of the butterflies to the attention of the general public.

PTA meeting told child needs love, protection

"Two loving parents are a basic need of every child," Mrs. Paulette Hartich of the Association for Family Living, Chicago, told 200 Arlington Heights PTA members Tuesday night at South school.

"Protection" and the "need to belong" were the next important factors stressed by Mrs. Hartich.

SHE FURTHER discussed the theme "The Family Sets the Pattern" by telling the importance of the pre-school period during which time a child's personality is molded.

In guiding a child properly, it is important to keep pace with his stages of development. The speaker added it is easier for the adolescent to mature properly if his earlier life has been a "loving one."

The PTA meeting, first of the 1948-49 year, was opened with a pledge to the flag led by Cub Scouts of Pack 232. R. E. Clabaugh, superintendent of district 25, presented teaching staffs of North and South schools, with special tribute to Irene Russell, former South school principal, who now is librarian at North school.

Arlington declared 'ideal'

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Crofoot, of 743 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights, will move to Crystal Lake on September 15, where they will devote their attention to farming.

The Crofoot home was purchased by R. Reed and family, of Minneapolis. Mr. Reed is vice president of Toni Manufacturing company. Several other families associated with that firm have already located in the Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect suburban area.

Sale of the property was negotiated by "Ken" Whitton for H. R. Jacobsen company, who represented both parties.

Rally Day Sunday at Presbyterian church

The largest enrollment in the history of the Presbyterian church school in Arlington Hgts. will participate in the school's annual Rally Day ceremonies Sunday September 26, in the church sanctuary. All parents and church members are invited to attend.

Enrollment now exceeds 300, and the work of the pupils is handled by a staff of 26 teachers and supervisors—also the largest in the school's history—which is headed by David A. Zimmerman, superintendent.

Exercises next Sunday will be featured by reviews of typical work studied by the graduating classes in the four of the church school departments—nursery, beginners, primary and junior. Bibles will be awarded to graduates from the primary and junior departments. Final plans for Rally Day will be reviewed at a meeting of teachers tonight, Thursday, at 8:00, at the church.

This Rally Day marks the beginning of a new era for the Presbyterian church school, with plans now completed for the institution of a newly developed course of study starting the first Sunday in October. An entirely new file of materials is being provided the church school membership, with special bound volumes being given to the children for their use at home.

Parents are being brought into the school program more intensely, and a quarterly magazine following the course of study will be supplied to parents as well as to teachers. A special committee appointed to coordinate parent cooperation with the church school program is being headed by Mrs. Richard Frasier.

Miss America 1948 may visit in Arlington

Miss Beatrice Bella Shopp, 18, crowned Miss America of 1948 at Atlantic City last Saturday, is "practically" an Arlington Heights resident.

Although she hails from Hopkins, Minnesota, she and her family lived in Downers Grove fifteen years and she has visited often at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Anderson, in Arlington Heights.

The 1948 beauty queen is 18 years old, weighs 138 pounds, is 5 feet 9 inches tall, and has light brown hair and blue eyes.

Her new title and more than $21,000 worth of awards were results of her placing first in the beauty, bathing suit and talent divisions at Atlantic City. In the latter she played two vibratory selections.

She will apply a $5,000 scholarship toward her music education in Minneapolis and later at Northwestern university. Immediate traveling itinerary includes several personal appearances in New York, starting September 17, a flight to California and later to Catalina Island.

The new Miss America stopped in Chicago Tuesday on her way home to receive congratulations from her cousins Paul, Ronald and Karin Anderson.

Miss Shopp, who had never entered a beauty contest before the Miss America venture, was induced to enter the Minnesota event by a photographer who "spotted" her at her high school prom in June.

"Her present schedule will keep her away from home for several weeks," Anderson stated, "but we hope Beatrice will visit us in Arlington again soon."

New bowling alley open to leagues

Erection of the new Palatine bowling alley at the corner of Northwest highway and Rohlfing road has progressed far enough so league bowling can start Monday night, September 27, on the 10 Brunswick alleys.

The building will have a stucco facade and will be heated by high pressure hot water unit heaters and radiators. Fluorescent lighting will be used throughout.

"Prices have advanced continually and it has been almost a headache to finish the building," Hubert Meier and Harvey Helms, owners, of Palatine, commented. "There were times when we couldn't even buy nails, and heating pipe is almost impossible to get."

The building will be 72 by 126 feet, and evergreens will be included in the landscaping scheme. Ample parking space will be provided.

New student assistant at Presbyterian church

A new student assistant will take over the responsibility of the high school students who meet Sunday and Tuesday evenings at the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church. The assistant, John Davies, is at present a junior at McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago.

John Davies was born in Waukesha, Wisconsin in 1926, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Zoe Davies. His father is Professor of Bible and Religious Education at Carroll college in Waukesha. He graduated from Waukesha high school in 1944 and entered the army air force August 1, 1944, serving in the continental United States as an air corps "pre-aviation" cadet. At the close of the war, the cadet training program was discontinued and he was discharged November 1, 1945, after being stationed at Michigan State college, Keesler Field (Biloxi, Miss.), Smyrna A.A.B. (Tennessee) and Chanute Field, Illinois.

He enrolled at Carroll college immediately after discharge and continued there until graduation. While at Carroll he majored in Philosophy and Psychology, graduating Magna Cum Laude in July 1948. As a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, he served as chaplain and president, and also was president of the Inter-Fraternity council in his senior year. He was a member of The Student Christian Association, Westminster Fellowship, Kappa Sigma Delta, and West Fellowship planning committee for one year. (Kappa Sig is the religious life fraternity).

Arlington graduate roommate with Decathlon champion

Lew Draper and family of Arlington Heights and especially Lew Draper Jr. were given quite a thrilling surprise a few weeks ago when it was announced that Lew Jr. was to be the roommate of one of the U. S. Olympic greats, Bob Mathias, who just returned from London with the famous decathlon crown in his possession.

Lew, who graduated from Arlington last year, is rooming with the 17 year old Mathias at Kiski Prep School in Salisbury, Penn. This school has a reputation of developing great athletes as shown by the total of 68 All-American athletes that have gone on to college from this school.

Passes give Cards 19-0 victory over Barrington Broncos

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

A strong but inexperienced Arlington Heights high school varsity grid squad, opened the 1948 football campaign at Arlington Heights last Friday by bumping the Barrington Broncos in a night cap held on the Cardinal field by a 19-0 count. The Cards, playing without two of their best linemen, Tony Moretti and Emmet McDougall, proved to the packed stadium that Heights will once more be one of the top teams in this area.

Barrington won the toss and George Kovack kicked off to Chuck Kranz, the Broncos star, who returned the ball 18 yards to the 35. Barrington, aided by an offside penalty against Arlington, moved swiftly up to the 50 yard stripe, only to lose the ball on a fumble which the Cards' Bill Wiest recovered. Neither team made much headway for the rest of the period, but the Cards got their first big break when Baumann fumbled Robinson's punt on his own 38, with Wiest once again recovering for Arlington.

On the first play Chuck Fischer, the local's hard running half-back, raced the 38 yards for a touchdown, only to have it nullified on a clipping penalty. However, once again, with Fischer doing the brunt of the work, the Cards moved toward pay dirt, and on third down Ralph Heinze plunged over from the 2, only to have an off side penalty nullify this score.

BOB TUKEY punted out of danger for the Broncos, but combined running attacks by Bill Robinson and Roger Breda quickly moved the ball from Arlington's 45 to the Broncos' 35. On third down Robinson faded back and threw a perfect pass to Doug Gilman on the 8, who sped over for a true touchdown. Ken Bork's kick was wide, and the Cards led, 6-0, when the half ended.

Arlington came back in the third period, and after play had been sawed back and forth throughout the quarter, the Cards pulled off the best play of the game, when on the Broncos' 25 yard stripe, Fischer took the ball on a double reverse and flipped a short pass to Robinson on the 18, who went the rest of the way for the tally, with Bork converting the 13th point.

No. Suburban league a tossup in '48 football

by G. A. McElroy

The North Suburban Conference opens its first football season Friday night as Zion enters against Crystal Lake, and Woodstock is host to Grayslake. Saturday, Libertyville plays at Lake Forest. Warren, odd team of the seven club loop in the first week, meets Antioch in a non-league warm up contest Friday at Gurnee.

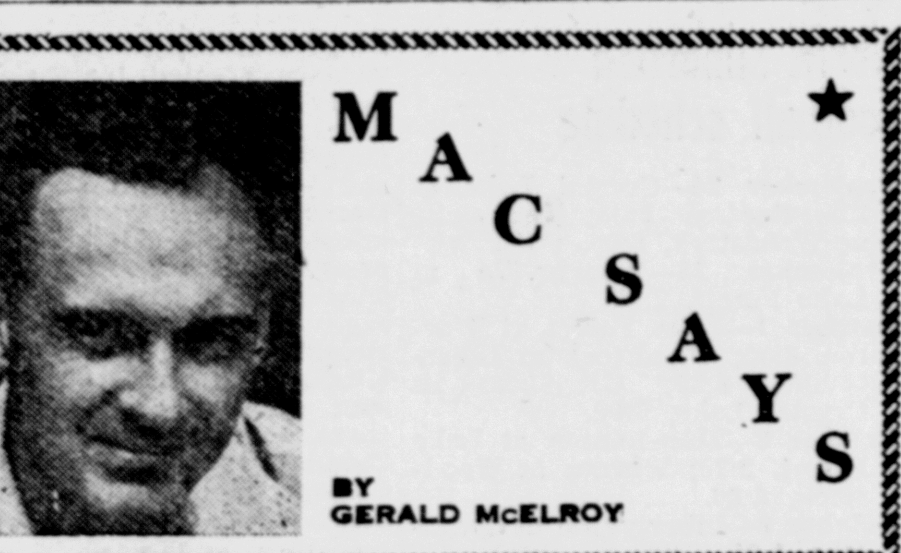

To all indications the league will be very evenly matched with no standout eleven. A Woodstock paper, after a survey, picks Libertyville, Zion, and Warren as most likely contenders. Our survey indicates that Crystal Lake, rather than Libertyville, will be a leader come early November along with Warren, and Zion. Warren has a crack backfield but their line has defensive weaknesses and is green. Zion has green men in the line likewise but has by edges there on early performance.

THE TEAMS will be even in all round ability. Crystal Lake has speed, balance, and depth in reserves. They will either take it all or finish third. We will pick Zion right now to win the league in 1949 but '48 may be a bit early. Grayslake has a hustling team but is hardly a first place club.

Give Lake Forest a few weeks and they will be good as any. If they should start out a winner they will be tough to stop. Lindemeyer will have a tough team come late October. Libertyville must depend, like Lake Forest, on last year's JV squad and it was not up to Lake Forest standard last year. Woodstock is much improved but probably not a first place contender.

NORTH SUBURBAN does not have a push over in the league. No one will go through undefeated and no one will be blanketed without a victory. An interesting season is in store for Lake and McHenry county fans. The champ will be the team that improves most in the next six weeks. Right now they are about even.

REG'LAR FELLERS It Only Happens Once A Year By Gene Byrnes

After a very impressive start last week the Northwest Conference schools were a bit over their head this last week end as game scores will indicate. It adds up to one point in our mind and that is that the race in the league will be a toss up. We had expected Grant and Bensenville to be outstanding. They definitely are not. Barrington is good but not good enough to win them all. Palatine and Northbrook are much better than originally figured. We do not know how to figure Antioch but we do not think they will figure as a contender.

Like Crystal Lake, Zion and Warren in new North Suburban

Last week's games on the other hand established North Suburban League teams as having quite a lot of class. Certainly Warren, Zion, and Crystal Lake were impressive as they scored from 25 to 30 points in openers against fair opposition. Woodstock is improved. Grayslake has a good hustling club. Lake Forest and Libertyville are short on veterans but are excellent football towns with good school enrollments and much good material coming up. Personally we think the champ will be from among Crystal Lake, Zion, and Warren and the finish might be in that order. Crystal Lake plays at Zion Friday. That will tell a lot.

Palatine plans for holiday cage tourney as Bisons enter

Palatine will continue their holiday tournament after all. The change in coaches at Bensenville brought about a change in cage plans there and the new varsity coach, Novotney, can arrange to bring his team to Palatine. The tournament will have its first round on New Years eve December 31 with the finals on New Year's night. Having the tourney on these dates is due to the fact that Arlington and Leyden will be playing in the DeKalb tournament earlier in the same week.

Robinson came through in the pinch Friday night

A smart, experienced quarterback is a big asset to any football team. Add to that passing, kicking and blocking ability and you have the start of a fine ball team. Arlington has all this in Robinson, whose generalship and passing ability changed an even game with Barrington into a 19-0 victory.

Mike Rose a busy official

Mike Rose of North Chicago is not only one of the smartest and most capable officials in Illinois, he is also one of the busiest. Last week end was typical for little Mike. Friday afternoon he worked the Lake Forest-Northbrook game, that evening he refereed the Zion-Harlem tilt. Saturday he was on the Palatine-Warren game in the afternoon and the McHenry-Grant game in the evening. Sunday he polished off the week end with a pro game between Racine and Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Palatine team has improved playing spirit

Palatine coaches and players should be encouraged by a remark made to us by Rose after the Warren game. He has officiated Palatine games many years but he said this was the first Palatine team that as a group seemed to really like to play football, and wanted to play football. Every other Palatine team he had seen in football had some loafers, some who were afraid to tackle or block, and some who just in plain words gave up when they got behind. Certainly the same could be said of the frosh-soph squad which played the big Wauconda boys Saturday.

Arlington hopeful on Coe college team

Palatine Eagles in first game at Elmhurst

Barring injuries during this weeks practices, the Palatine Eagles will be at full strength for their opening game with the Elmhurst Travelers on Sunday, Sept. 26. The game will be held at East Lake Park, Elmhurst at 2 p. m. Final practice will be at 7 p. m. Thursday night on the field south of Palatine high school. Following the Elmhurst game, a night game with Franklin Park will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 6.

Palatine Eagles are coached by Bob O'Hagan who gained his experience in the backfield of Arlington Heights high school teams from 1935 to 1939. He played right half-back on Marquette University's varsity from 1939 to 1942 and completed his college competition in 1946 following army air corps service. Elected captain in his senior year, he has turned to coaching because of a permanent injury. Earl Schinkowsky of Palatine is the able manager of the squad.

Coach O'Hagan announced that the offense has improved commendably and due to the fine performance of the boys, no practice was held Sunday.

The probable starting lineup for Sunday's game will be as follows: R. Ross, L. E. J. Bracke, L. T. H. Hayes, L. G. H. Reece, C. W. Schwank, R. G. J. Hayden, R. T. C. Hestrup, R. E. R. Henker, Q. B. B. Bakalar, L. H. Pete Philippe, F. B. S. Arnett, Jr., R. H.

Venturelli should land Bear job

Fred Venturelli, 40-year-old Chicago Bear hopeful from Wisconsin, has been out to prove to papa bear Halas to hire him for kicking and that alone. Up to this year, Halas has never wasted one man's talents on booting alone, and at the start of this season was of the same mind.

But Venturelli has given local bigwigs some food for thought. The Bears have crossed the goal line an even twenty times in six exhibition games. And Venturelli has kicked between the goalposts those same twenty times.

In the field goal department Venturelli missed once in three times from the 31 yard stripe. But last week's field boot against Washington won the contest.

So now it's up to Halas. The Bears open league play Sunday at Green Bay, and by that time Venturelli will be either on the program or back on the farm.

Bisons lose to Hinsdale

Bensenville high school's football Bisons were soundly drubbed Saturday afternoon by the Hinsdale varsity, 36-0, the winners gaining revenge for the 8-6 score of last season. From the moment Hinsdale blocked a Bison punt early in the first quarter, until the final gun sounded, the result was never in doubt.

Hinsdale crossed pay dirt the first time from that kick, intercepted a pass for the second score, returned a punt 65 yards for the third touchdown. A twenty yard run produced the fourth tally, with a pass earning the fifth. Final score was produced on another intercepted toss.

Mt. Prospect nine wins Walther league trophy

A championship trophy was accepted by Walter Bach for St. Paul's Mt. Prospect Walther League baseball team Sunday when the locals defeated Salem Walther League team in the semifinals, 7-2, and also defeated the Lansing, Ill. Walther League team, 3-1, at Parichy stadium in Chicago.

In the final playoff, Lansing started off with a run in the first inning. Mel Krueger pitched a two hitter for the locals. E. Winterhoff for Lansing pitched a no hitter until the six inning when Don Freitag hit a line drive to center field.

In the 7th inning the Lansing pitcher gave two more hits, the first of which was hit by Gail Back, and after diving in second for a stolen base, Gail was driven home for the tying run by a hit on an error by Marv Anderson.

The second was a homer by Bill Willie, driving in Marv Anderson, who had stolen second base.

Arlington Sidelines

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

Tomorrow night the Arlington Cardinal grid team will tackle Marmion High in Aurora with the kickoff slated for 8:00. However, coach Curtiss Larson has some bad news for Arlington boosters. It seems as though the guard situation at Arlington is becoming more complicated every day. This position, before practice opened, looked to be the strongest department on the team. But three injuries to the guard position have reversed that considerably. Jim Stavros, veteran from last year's squad, has been seeing limited action due to a bad shoulder injury. Toni Moretti, all-conference guard of last year, broke his collar bone two weeks ago and might be out for the season. Then, last Tuesday Bob Schulze, standout sophomore guard, received a deep head injury, but is expected to see action in a short time.

Scrimages were held Tuesday and Wednesday nights in order to get the boys used to the muddy field and the slippery ball. Coach Larson is trying to cover up the flaws made against Barrington and is stressing harder blocking and tackling drills. Also, an attempt is being made to weed out the offensive flaws, and passing is getting the limelight in their drills.

Frosh-sophs look good in spite of Wauconda loss

Mac Says

Outweighed at least 20 pounds to the man Palatine's frosh-sophs put up a good battle against Wauconda's new varsity team. After an evenly played first half, the weight advantage began to tell and Wauconda piled up a big yardage advantage but was able to tally but once against the scrappy Palatine boys.

Wauconda scored at the start of the second half in a sustained drive of 75 yards with the touchdown being scored by Carlson on a 14 yard pass from Rudden. Wauconda threatened again soon after but Dan Day intercepted a pass on his own 10 yard line but soon after punted out of danger. Penalties which cost Wauconda a total setback of 160 yards stopped their offense on several occasions when they seemed to be on their way to score.

Schotanus at quarterback and Baird at tackle stood out for Wauconda. Day at quarterback and Krause at fullback looked especially good for the Pirates and the whole line played hard and tackled unusually well for beginners.

Hogs Top List

Hogs excel all other farm animals in the efficiency with which they convert feed into meat.

Most favored team in state loses opener

LaGrange, rated as most likely in the state to go through undefeated in football, lost 21-7 to Oak Park in the opener. Oak Park with new coach Ross Anderson started in an impressive fashion. Anderson was on the Illinois staff last year. Pat Holmes who coached Oak Park to 13 Suburban league titles in 19 years is now a community sports program director in Madison, Wis. Now Oak Park is touted as a possible state champ but keep in mind that New Trier was rated as chief Suburban contender.

Northbrook star on first team at Illinois

"Chuck" Brown, 230 tackle on Northbrook championship teams a few years back, has been given his big chance. He is on the first team at the University of Illinois. "Chuck" enrolled first at Northern Illinois Teachers at DeKalb but after one season shifted to Illinois. As a sophomore at Illinois, Brown has shown enough stuff to work his way to the top among the tackles. At Northbrook he was rated by this paper as the best football player in the Northwest Conference and named all-league tackle two years in a row.

Bergstrom's Bradley team makes college coaching debut a success

Art Bergstrom who two years ago was coaching Libertyville football made his debut as head coach of Bradley Tech Saturday with a 34-0 win over Ripon college. Bergstrom coached Decatur high last season to one of the best records in the history of the school and got a well deserved promotion.

Chicago Cardinals open league play Friday night vs Philadelphia

The Chicago Cardinals, looking more like champions with each succeeding game, open the league schedule this Friday night when they meet Philadelphia Eagles under lights at Comiskey Park. And what is more fitting than the news that Goldberg is back, and the Cards have got him.

Marshall Goldberg has been "retiring" the past three years but still isn't able to get the football out of his blood. He was signed for the season over the week end, and will be on the field on defense for the Cards Friday night.

Blue Devils open up early to win

Palatine football teams lost a home doubleheader Saturday afternoon but the Pirates' coaches were much encouraged by the showing of their boys. The varsity lost 27-6 to a very strong Warren team which is expected to be a strong contender in the new North Suburban conference. The frosh-sophs scheduled over their head in playing a big but inexperienced Wauconda varsity but lost by only 6-0.

Warren's backfield, as expected, was packed with dynamite. Maurice deLoof, all conference last year, certainly lived up to his reputation as he gained 148 yards. DeLoof scored two touchdowns, one on a 70 yard sprint off tackle. Hamel had a 42 yard run and Turner one of 37. Palatine showed the better line play but Palatine's secondary could not stop Warren's backfield speed.

BLUE DEVILS scored in the first three minutes of play. The kickoff was run by Hamel to Palatine's 43 and in six plays deLoof went over from the one yard stripe and then plunged for the extra point. Late in the first period Warren started another march after deLoof intercepted a pass. Kagay recovered a Warren fumble on the one yard line to temporarily halt the threat. After Ross punted out 30 yards Turner ran 20 to score on the fourth play. Dado dove over for the point to make it 14-0 at the half.

There was no score in the third period. Palatine had a drive stopped after a 36 yard advance but Warren soon gained the yardage back and at the start of the last quarter broke loose for a 37 yard touchdown run. The try for point failed. Soon after Dick Ross got off a 47 yard punt which set Warren back to their 30 yard line. After no gain on two plays deLoof broke through the line and sidestepped the secondary for a 70 yard touchdown run. Handli made the extra point.

Palatine came back strong and from midfield marched to a touchdown. A 25 yard pass from Loebber to Trenchard set up the score. A five yard penalty on Warren and two plunges by Kagay put the ball over from the 12 yard line. THE PIRATES played good football and showed no signs of giving up when they got behind. The opposition just packed too much punch on offense and was a good deal better ball team than the Palatine eleven will meet in their own eagles.

Kagay with 48 yards and D. Ross with 35 gained all but 10 yards of the net gained by rushing for Palatine. Ross also did some very good punting. Larry Ross and Louis Frapper made the most tackles.

Points after touchdowns: deLoof, Dado, Handli.
Palatine substitutions: Sherman, Greener, DeJka, Fulton, Schwingel, Kendzie, Greenwood, Mair, Verabough, Fletcher, Wiley.
Warren substitutions: Bandli, Bain, Cassidy, Cowan, Dalziel, Decker, N. Housley, Hoffines, Jolly, Laursen, Rice and Yoder.

Des Plaines Merchants in first game Sunday

Des Plaines Merchants, town football team of which Bob Goebbert of Arlington Heights is manager, will play its first game Sunday, September 26, at Rand Park, Des Plaines, when the Westmont Eagles come to town. Game time is slated for 2 p. m.

Following Sunday, October 3, the Merchants will meet the Gremlins at Rand Park, again at 2 p. m. The Merchants travel to Franklin Park for a night game Wednesday, October 13, under lights at the Leyden high school field.

Bensenville man on Lake Forest squad

Don Borg, former Bensenville athlete, is one of 56 players who are engaged in early season football drills at Lake Forest college, Lake Forest, Ill.

Borg is a sophomore, weighs 180 and is trying for a spot in the Forester line. He has not lettered before at Lake Forest college.

Coach Ralph Jones, entering his 48th year of coaching, will take the Foresters through an eight game schedule, four of which are College Conference of Illinois tilts.

Don is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Borg, 112 McLean Ct., Bensenville.

On team at Ripon

Named on the football roster at Ripon college, Ripon, Wis., is Bill Godknecht of Palatine. BILL is a junior and plays end on the squad.

General store exhibit at hobby show recalls "good old days"

The country store was one of the hits at the antique and hobby show last week at Arlington Heights Methodist Meeting house.

Old timers had to explain to the present generation some of the articles displayed. At the left can be seen unmentionables of the fair sex that in those days were really never mentioned. On the floor are cheese boxes.

A spittoon takes the place of the sawdust box in which the stoves of the old days were placed, and a checker board is on the old cracker barrel.

Stags adopt farm club system; Rottner to coach new club

The Chicago Stags have taken another progressive step in the field of professional basketball. In an effort to enhance their effectiveness in the highly competitive Basketball Association of America, the Stags, under the direction and supervision of President Judge John A. Sbarbaro and Head Coach Harold "Ole" Olsen, have adopted a farm club system and will support a professional team in Chicago this year. The team will play a number of games as part of regular Chicago Stag double-header programs.

Mickey Rottner, former Loyola University star and last year's Stag captain will coach the Steers it was announced by Sbarbaro and Olsen. The personnel of the team will be made up of players not quite ready for the stiff B. A. A. competition but

U. S. can not live in isolation' says Willard C. Walters

Willard C. Walters, Arlington Heights, who is candidate for congress on the Democratic ticket from the 13th district, demonstrated at Waukegan Labor Day that he has independent ideas regarding national affairs.

He scored the Republican congress for the passage of the Taft-Hartley law, the reduction in the income tax payments of the wealthy, removal of railroad from prosecution under anti-trust laws and the passage of an inadequate housing bill.

In the opinion of Mr. Walters, the most important issues confronting the U. S. are strengthening of the UN and international trade organizations; inflation control, improved labor relations, federal aid housing and education and extension of civil rights.

"Two great wars must have convinced us that we cannot live in isolation said Walters. "We must join with other nations of the world for peace or most assuredly we will be forced to join with such allies as we can for defense in war."

"The surrender of some portion of our sovereign authority to a world council for peace is much to be preferred over a military dictatorship of our own making, with its consequent surrender of our liberties and impoverishment of our people."

Lombard to prosecute local fire fans

It was pretty much a matter of routine at the holiday-postponed meeting of the Lombard board of trustees — pretty much, that is, until the calm was shattered by Trustee Hornbeck's request for some plan that will make Lombard fire fans cease, desist and absolutely stop chasing the fire truck with such enthusiasm that firemen find it difficult to reach the scene.

There is a village ordinance requiring all non-firemen to remain at a distance of a block

Miss Rose, Rufus Starck married in Wisconsin

Rumors were heard all summer of the approaching marriages of two of Palatine's young residents.

When it became known Saturday night that Rufus Starck had left for Prescott, Wisconsin, his friends were wise to the fact that his days as a single man were numbered.

The ceremony took place at high noon Monday at the home of the bride's grandparents. After the wedding luncheon, the couple left on a northern trip, and will return to Palatine the latter part of the week.

Mr. Starck, known to his friends as Ruf, is a modest and unassuming young man who has won the respect of all the citizens.

Miss Rose was born and raised in Palatine and taught kindergarten classes here. After October 1, the couple will be at home to their friends at the Converse residence, corner Colfax and Plum Grove aves. —1908—

Horse-racing wins are C. E. Dean specialty

Last week was a busy time for C. E. Dean of Palatine. Monday he drove Minor Heir at the Minnesota State Fair in C.0.1 1/2. Wednesday, he won the 3:00 trot at Libertyville with Fiducial and was third with Delta Clare in the 2:20 pace.

Thursday, at the same place, he won a race with Isabelle, and was second with Black Silk in the free-for-all trot.

Friday he drove Minor Heir again at Minneapolis in an exhibition mile. The papers say he made it in 1:59 1/2, but the official given time was 2:00 1/4. It is claimed the fair officials were not willing to let Minor Heir have the record formerly held by Dan Patch, which would have cost them $500 additional money.

Saturday, Charley was again at Libertyville, winning a race with Fiducial. He is at Milwaukee this week. —1908—

Itascans spend Sunday at Lake Zurich

Four auto loads spent Sunday at Lake Zurich. The parties were Otto Schuette and family from Pingree Grove, August Potratz, Albert Fischer and their families of Bartlett, Aug. C. Goeddeke and H. H. Franzen with their families of Itasca.

A jolly day was spent bathing, fishing, boat-riding and indulging in other kinds of lake sports. Best of all, everyone helped empty every lunch basket on the lawn under the oak trees. —1908—

Couple injured as horse shies at speeding automobile

Wm. Leiseberg and wife who attended the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Leiseberg Sr. at Bloomingdale Saturday were badly injured when their horse shied at an automobile and ran off the pike into a barbed wire fence.

Both were thrown out. William had one collar bone broken and other injuries while his wife was severely cut on the face and badly bruised. They were hastily taken to Roselle where Dr. Zochert bandaged them so they could go home.

They were fortunate to escape death, and both are now doing well. This is another case where an automobile driver didn't use any sense or seem to care how much other people are injured or even hurled to death by their carelessness.

Sidelights of Arlington Heights

Henry Bolte Jr. and wife spent Sunday at Riverview park.

Henry Kehe is attending Northwestern Business college.

Emil Taege and family had their little daughter christened Sunday.

Herman Garms and Victor Reed attended the Libertyville fair Friday.

Miss Bergeth Olson was a guest at the McElhose home the first of the week.

Mrs. Dodge and children returned Friday from a visit with friends at Spring Green, Wisconsin.

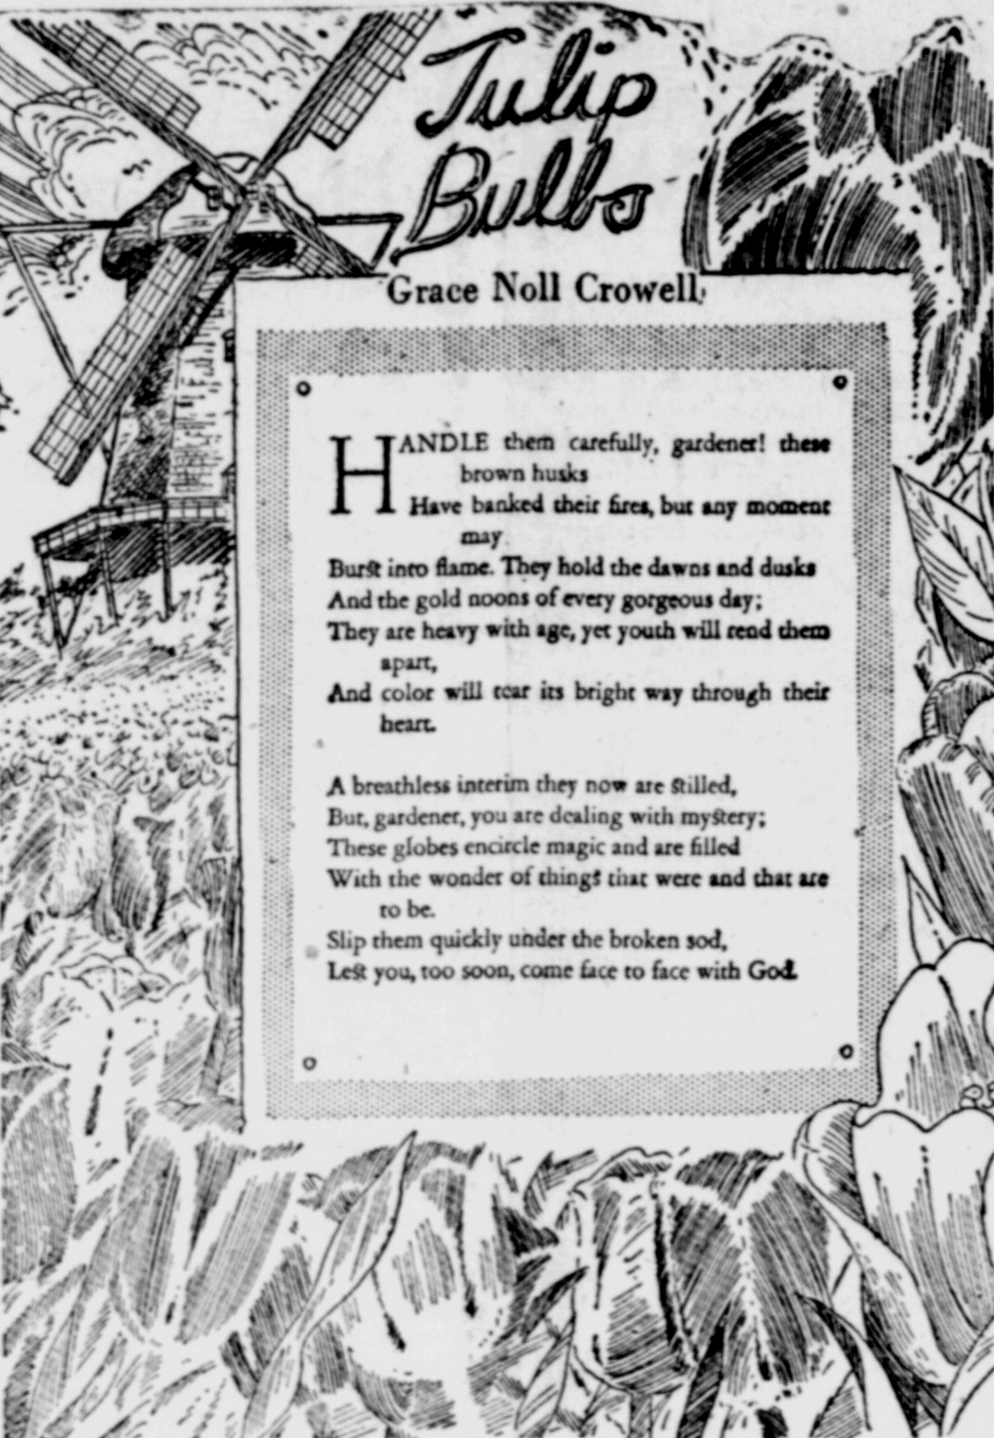

H. W. and E. J. Scharringhausen with their wives spent Sunday with the Louis Heimsoth family in Elk Grove.

The foundation for H. Wittenkamp's new house is laid. Mrs. E. D. Bugbee and sister Miss Ann MacFarland left Wednesday to visit John Davis and family at DeKalb. —1908—

Melinda Kolze to wed Emil Blume, Mannheim

A Bensenville wedding set for Thursday, September 23, is that of Miss Melinda Kolze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kolze, of Bensenville, and Emil Blume, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Blume of Mannheim. They will be married at 7 p. m. in Friedens church. Celebration following the wedding will be at the home of the bride's parents. —1908—

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

A short time ago a Chicago letter carrier was bitten by a dog that had attacked not one person, but several. His wound was deep and painful. His uniform was torn in a struggle during which he had to throw chairs at the dog in order to defend himself from its attacks.

I know how much the owner must have loved his dog, for I have always loved dogs myself. A dog is almost one of the family, and like our children, we can always find an excuse for their misdeeds. I know how sorrowful I would be to lose my dog, no matter what he had done, and I feel sorry for the owner because he had to do away with it. The mail man who was bitten felt the same way about the dog's owner. If he hadn't, he could have caused a great deal of unpleasantness—it was a perfect case for a suit for damages—and the owner of the dog was very fortunate to get off so easily.

But unless we feel too smugly about our own conscientious attitude with regard to our neighbor's and other people's welfare, let us remind ourselves that this owner was not the only offender.

People who let their dogs run loose are forever responsible for the destruction of other people's flower gardens, peace of mind, and restful sleep. Loose dogs spend carefree days running over people's flower gardens, destroying their shrubs, frightening little children and elderly people. Crossing streets, they become a traffic hazard. They provide unsightly scenes at certain times of the year for children to look upon. Loose dogs often carry diseases, infecting members of one's own family with sicknesses that are sometimes hard to cure.

A well kept dog is a joy to any family. I have seen some dogs so well kept that they are as clean and sweet as a freshly bathed baby. I have seen others with sore eyes, mangy and dirty bodies, or thin and scrawny from malnutrition or disease. The old adage that a dog is a man's best friend is only true if that dog is not diseased, ridden, dirty, or vicious and free to harm others.

Your weekly treat recipe

Sure it's a treat to sit down to a meal that looks good. But a meal that is topped with devil's food cake is a triple treat. Who could resist this easy-to-make and delicious recipe?

Devil's Food Cake
2 cups brown sugar, firmly packed.
1/2 cup butter
2 warranted eggs
2 two ounce square chocolate
1 tsp. soda
1/2 cup boiling water
1/2 cup sour cream
2-1/4 cups cake flour
1 tsp. double acting baking powder
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 tsp. almond extract (optional)
1/2 tsp. cinnamon.

Method: Place chocolate in pan and dissolve in boiling water. Cream butter and sugar. Add soda to hot mixture and pour over butter and sugar. Add sour cream and beaten eggs. Sift baking powder and cinnamon with flour and add to first mixture. Add flavoring and beat well. Bake in layers, or in one large shallow pan. Bake in preheated oven at 325 degrees for 30 minutes.

The first trucks used in the wholesale delivery of ice cream . . . how they invariably managed to get stuck in the mud of unpaved streets to remain there until the ice cream melted . . . how we kids dug deep ruts in the road and then prayed for rain to fill the hole with muddy water so the truck would get stuck again . . . how a wide board at that time was always good for at least one quart of free ice cream?

50,000 still unfilled for state bonus

An estimated 50,000 Illinois veterans who are eligible to receive the state bonus have failed to file applications, the Illinois Veterans Commission pointed out today.

The Commission warned that all applications for the Illinois bonus must be on file before June 30, 1949 — nine months hence.

Any Illinois veteran or veteran's dependent who has not filed for the state benefit due veterans of World War II is urged to contact the nearest Illinois Veterans Commission office immediately. The IVC service officer will assist any applicant to apply for the bonus or any other benefit due him.

In Cook county the service officer is Walter Haynes, whose office is located at 41 S. Prospect ave., Park Ridge, Ill.

NEED A PARK

There exists in Arlington Heights a situation of which, I doubt, even the members of the organization involved are aware. This organization is a church and a school with a fine big playground. At one end of the grounds is a large sign reading "Welcome" (to the church), at the other a sign saying "Private Keep Out" (of the playground). There are many children in the vicinity of these grounds who do not attend this school, and each time a group of these children go on the playground they are literally chased off, with much yelling and threatening. The idea is left with them that they are trespassing because they do not belong to this select group and that they are not responsible, and apt to break something. The board of this organization has been offered a sum of money adequate to take care of any breakage, if the children could be allowed to play there, but to date they have not seen fit to act upon this suggestion.

There is no yard nearby large enough for baseball. A city park in the vicinity contains signs reading "No baseball or football". Neither parents nor police will permit playing in the streets. Where are these children then to play?

In our home we have tried to teach our children tolerance of differences in races, creeds, and backgrounds, but they are beginning to resent this whole group by the above treatment.

I noted that this school in a recent article suggested that parents who wished their children instructed in religion send them there. If that is a sample of the brand of religion they teach, I want no part of it.

Legally, I suspect, they are definitely within their rights; but is this Christianity, or democracy? Is it community spirit or consideration for children? According to my definitions, No!

In publicizing this situation, it is done with no malice, but with the idea that members of the group who have been unaware of the actions of a few can take steps to correct them.

May Ryan, mother and administratrix of the estate of the late Howard Ryan, has sued Richard Merk in Circuit court for $15,000 damages for causing his death in an automobile accident in Niles May 2. He was a guest in Merk's car which was driven recklessly so it was wrecked and he was killed.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Jane:

Such a storm here at the farm during last night!

We were awakened shortly after midnight by lightning, thunder and sheets of rain coming down from the northwest. Our first thoughts were of George and Edward—they are still sleeping out in their tent in the orchard.

It wasn't the first time, of course, that they remained out there during a storm, still, I was apprehensive about their safety, "as usual," Rob said. We called out to them but received no answer. We could see the tent flaps were fastened, but the wind was so strong it entered between the small openings, causing the tent to expand like a huge balloon. It apparently is securely fastened to the ground, so it, and its occupants weathered the storm without a mishap. This morning the boys assured us they considered the experience "great fun," and they hadn't been frightened, nor did they get "soaked."

Rob and I must have spent a full hour during the storm rushing around the house shutting windows. I suddenly remembered that the windows in the play room were open directly over the little organ and over the studio couch, so, while Rob was down there, I hurried out to the terrace to remove the oil lamp, mugs, and table cloth from the table before they could be blown away. It was raining so heavily I had to give up rescuing the newly potted geraniums and begonias that had looked so attractive earlier in the day on a ledge near the entrance to the basement. (I have been busy all week re-potting plants for removal to the house, come the first warnings of frost—last year I lost many of them because I waited too long.)

When morning came, I went immediately to see what damage had been done, and was relieved to see the potted plants standing upright, but many of the tall stalked marigolds were flattened to the ground, their once bright yellow heads covered with dirt. The petunias lay in matted masses, and the dried Morning Glory seeds I had previously picked so carefully from the vine over the dinner bell post, were lying in a pool of water. I mean to start a new vine on the east and south walls of the little studio.

Here and there on the front lawn we found dead branches from the old maple trees, but this will save Rob the trouble and labor of getting out the step ladder and his pruning shears.

In a storm as violent as this was, one wonders about the stock standing about in the pastures. Rob remarked that the cows were dripping with water when they came into the barn at milking time this morning. Bonnie's little colt has a clean coat, tho. I noticed. Because she's almost white in coloring, it is seldom she presents a spotless appearance. And I wonder that the animals do not catch cold in such exposure, but Jack has said that they more often catch cold if they are left to stand still in a chilly barn.

Now that the morning has come and the rain has ceased, everything about the place looks fresh and clean, and when the sun comes out the flowers will lift their heads and be lovely once again. Haven't you seen this happen over and over? As Bob Jr. would say "that's life for you".

I suppose we must have the bitter to understand the joy of the sweet. To appreciate the sun, we must first, experience the rain.

I must close now. There is cream to be churned into butter, dishes to wash, and more plants to be potted for indoor blooming during the winter months to come. I can hear Laddie and Lassie at the kitchen door—they want their breakfast. And, sure enough, here comes the sun! I hope you see it, too.

With love, Mary.

It Happened Here . . .

One Fall Day

How blue the mist between the hills,
Where one her brown hands idly fills

With gentians bluer than the autumn skies!
She says that here their beauty never dies;

For here the faded halcyon breeds,
Kingfisher blue among the reeds;

Here signal smoke from autumn fires
The blue of gentian fields acquires;

The far horizon's azure veil
Hides mysteries beyond the pale.

And shadows deepen into night as blue
As speedwells that in cranberries grew.

The flicker has found a way to amuse himself; he beats out a lively reveille on the tin gutters, and, O, boy, is he good. He has also discovered the little wren house, left to summer and winter on the mulberry tree, and tho it has been there for years he has never noticed it before but now his curiosity about it cannot be assuaged; he sidles around it, peering at it fore and aft, drums on it and liking the hollow sound, repeats the performance to the delight of the listeners. We cannot make out whether he thinks it an unusually hard knot or whether he really enjoys the drumming.

Mundelein man named in mail insurance fraud

John MacArthur of Mundelein, has been indicted by a federal grand jury in Chicago on 25 counts charging he used the mails to defraud and conspiracy to defraud. He is president of the Bankers Life and Casualty Insurance company of Chicago. He was named in an indictment which involved the now defunct Westminster Life Insurance company. He acquired that company in February, 1946, for $305,000 and merged the firm with the Bankers Life and Casualty company.

U.S. Atty. Otto Kerner Jr. said postal inspectors found that 67 per cent of all claims against the Westminster Insurance company were rejected. Another 24 per cent brought payments of $10 or less.

Evidence showed that some of the policies sold for $1 a month "up to $7,500." The company advertised a "family group policy" which provided a death benefit depending on age. Small print in the policy however, reduced the claims to ridiculous amounts by dividing the total payments by the number of individuals covered.

The plaintiff charges that due to a broken sidewalk in front of 321 S. Jefferson st., Woodstock, she slipped and fell on November 12, 1947, suffering several broken bones and other injuries. She charges the sidewalk was unsafe to walk on.

Abortion

Doctor Ward's Notebook

"— and especially I will not aid a woman to procure abortion."

This statement of medical policy has been preserved in the Hippocratic Oath through the more than two centuries which have passed since the time of the ancient Greeks. Today's attitude toward abortion has been modified by medical science in the light of increasing knowledge of obstetrical complications.

In medical language the word abortion applies to all interruptions of pregnancy before the child is viable—i.e. able to live after delivery. This usually means that the pregnancy has existed less than 26 to 28 weeks. In general there are three kinds of abortion.

Spontaneous abortion occurs as the result of disease in the mother or in the developing fetus or accidental injury. Some of the many reasons for spontaneous abortion are: an abnormality of the fetus (nature gets rid of a fetus which would be horribly deformed if it went to full term), abnormal attachment of the fetus in the womb, disease of the womb itself, acute infections in the mother, syphilis, prolonged anesthesia, hormone disturbance of the internal glands of secretion, and excessive violence such as may occur in an automobile accident. It has been estimated that approximately 270,000 spontaneous abortions occur in the United States annually. This estimation is undoubtedly low since many occur at the expected time of a menstrual period and the skipped period may not be considered proof of the existence of a pregnancy.

Therapeutic abortion is a procedure which qualified physicians are occasionally required to perform in the interest of safety to the mother. This is an operation which carries a great deal of responsibility. Before taking this step it is desirable to obtain consultation opinions from two other competent doctors in addition to specific, written consent of both the patient and the next of kin. For years there has been moral and ethical controversy over this procedure. The Catholic Church, as represented by physicians and priests who may be called in for opinions, does not recognize therapeutic abortion, even though the life of the mother may be in danger. Certainly, there is a lot to be said for the hope of preserving the life of the baby. However, the vast majority of non-Catholic doctors feel that therapeutic abortion is indicated whenever it appears certain that continuation of pregnancy will result in the death of the mother. They feel that it is better to sacrifice the child, who will die if the mother dies, in order to save the mother's life. It is better to maintain the health and life of the mother and later adopt a child than risk the lives of mother and baby.

As years go by and we find better methods of treating diseases which the mother may have, the need for performing therapeutic abortion is becoming less and less. There still are, however, a number of conditions which make surgical intervention necessary: severe toxemia and protracted forms of vomiting, advanced tuberculosis and severe forms of treatment, heart disease such as dropsy and pernicious anemia, a few nervous diseases, and some diseases of the fetus which lead to early death of the developing embryo.

Criminal abortion, as its name implies, is the illegal interruption of an early pregnancy. This is one of the biggest problems that faces medical practice. It is also a tremendous problem from the moral and the psychological standpoints. It has been reliably estimated that more than one-half million illegal abortions are induced in the United States each year. The difficulty of estimating the incidence of a practice which is illegal is obvious and probably means that this estimate is also low. Because of the circumstances surrounding criminal abortion, many women die needlessly or are subjected to serious complications. These abortions are performed by the woman herself or by an irregular practitioner who is not able to make an adequate living practicing legitimate medicine. These operations can not be done in a home where adequate and so are performed in an office or at home where adequate facilities are not available. Infection, hemorrhage, perforation of the womb followed by peritonitis, permanent sterility and serious damage to the female organs are common results of this procedure. In addition, of course, there occur legal, social, and psychological repercussions whose effects may plague the patient throughout a lifetime. Criminal abortion is the procedure which Hippocrates was speaking of when he gave it a place in his Oath.

Solution of the problem of criminal abortion is extremely difficult and largely lies out of the hands of the medical profession. This is true because the circumstances which drive a woman to seek the unskilled quack can not be controlled by the physician. Some causes are illegitimate pregnancy, pregnancy as the result of adultery, pregnancy as the result of rape, lack of desire on the part of parents for children, a false fear of pregnancy, and many other factors which are frequently difficult to uncover. Some years ago Russia legalized abortion. The accumulating bad experience quickly convinced Russian physicians of the serious psychic, moral, social and medical evils which developed as a result. The answer to the problem can not be given in a few words. Certainly, however, a great deal can be done through education of the laity by the medical profession, provision of more homes for unmarried mothers, religious teaching of moral and spiritual values, and extensive and intelligent use of contraceptives.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: Will federal employees who are inducted for military training under the new draft law be given the same reinstatement rights that were afforded draftees under the Selective Service Act?

Answer: The law provides that federal employees, as well as employees of the District of Columbia, are to be returned to their old jobs without loss of seniority on completion of their training.

Question: I am a state employee, and would like to know if I should be drafted under the new draft law, would I be entitled to reinstatement rights with the state upon my return from service?

Answer: It will be the policy of the present state administration to give state employees who are drafted under the present law, reinstatement rights upon their return, according to statement of Governor Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Question: My wife and I are both veterans. Can we both obtain veterans preferences for federal civil service jobs at the same time?

Answer: Yes, if the wife is entitled to preference based on her own service in the armed forces. However, husband and wife are not entitled to concurrent preference benefits based on the husband's military service alone.

Lions club buys Lake Zurich waters

The Lake Zurich Lions club, which four years ago undertook to buy the waters of Lake Zurich along with two small pieces of shoreline, now has completely paid for the purchase, it was learned this week from Gene Frank, secretary of the club. The organization has made the final payment of $500 on a contract price of $10,000.

Although the club originally contracted to pay for the lake over a 10-year period, it was able to settle the debt in less than half that time through "sheer hard work and the co-operation of the people of the community," Frank said.

A fee of $5 will be levied against each boat operating on the lake which will be applied toward keeping the lake clean, paying taxes and keeping the lake open to the public.

The lake never has been publicly owned, largely because it is an artificial body of water. It is believed that the lake was formed in the 1870's, when a highway was constructed along what is now the north and east shores, and the roadbed served as a dam.

Steel canary and blue license plates in '49

Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett has announced that the 1949 automobile license plates will be made of steel for the first time since 1941.

A dark blue background with canary yellow numerals and letters will be the color combination. Mr. Barrett said this color scheme was chosen because the sharp contrast between the two colors provides high readability and because it is a marked change from the bright orange background with black numerals used on the 1948 plates.

During the war years, when steel was in critically short supply, Illinois switched to making most of its automobile license plates of a fiber material. Secretary Barrett said. While the use of this material was successful and effected a saving in mailing costs, it is now extremely difficult to obtain, he said. Under those circumstances, it was advisable to return to the use of steel, he added.

AAA announces support prices on wheat, corn, oats

With grain storage and marketing facilities near the saturation point, farmers must use their own resources and ingenuity to minimize losses that may develop through inadequate storage.

O. L. Whalin, University of Illinois agricultural extension service, offered this advice in a series of district meetings just held in the state. Particular stress was put on the need for more farm storage at these meetings, which were attended by county farm advisers, county AAA committeemen, bankers and elevator operators.

Whalin pointed out six reasons why farmers will need to give special attention to the problem of storage this year:

Corn and soybean production in Illinois is at record levels, and production in the U. S. as a whole will reach an all-time high.

MARKETING facilities may not be sufficient to handle all grain offered during the early part of the season. Lack of facilities may lead to lower prices.

Transportation facilities may break down.

Demand may be weakened by a decrease in livestock numbers and by the export situation.

There may be a greater-than-normal spread in price between harvest time and later.

Many farms are short on storage space.

At the four district meetings held at Dixon, Urbana, Mt. Vernon and Jacksonville, Whalin offered four possible solutions to the shortage of storage space on farms:

New permanent storage may be constructed; various types of temporary storage may be used; present building space may be converted into temporary or permanent storage; or neighboring farms may have extra storage space.

If a government loan is desired on the grain, then storage must meet the loan requirements; otherwise the only requirement will be to deliver satisfactory grain.

WHALIN ENCOURAGED farmers not to harvest grain until it is in suitable condition for storage.

Informational campaigns will be carried on during the fall months to help farmers understand the critical storage problem and to suggest ways to save grain through use of temporary storage facilities.

"Farmers interested in either a loan or a purchase agreement should contact either AAA office," states Carl Bornt, Chairman Cook County AAA. "Support prices on wheat are $2.15, oats 72 cents, and corn will be approximately $1.45, based on No. 3 corn or better. Under loan you give a chattel mortgage on the corn and it is placed under seal. On purchase agreement, you make no chattel mortgage, but agree to deliver the amount of commodity as in the case of wheat and oats after April 30, 1949, if the price goes below the support price.

"The terms on corn will be issued later. Application may be made up until December 31, 1948. Service charge is 1/2 cent per bushel at time of signing for a purchase agreement on all grain. Loan rates are 1 cent per bushel. Purchase agreements may be used as collateral on small bank loans. Of course, the loan provision makes the full amount of money available at time of the loan."

Surplus grains are building up

"Again grains are coming into surplus, largely from slowing down of foreign shipments and vastly increased production during war years. The A. A. A. will again make corn loans and sales agreements. The October 1st Cooperative will carry information on the subject, and specifications on a temporary crib made of snow fence with a roof," states Farm Adviser Hughes.

"While we do not expect much storage for surplus here, there will be heavy storage in the Corn Belt proper.

"The new parity formula for support price carries a feature that will make it flexible and to be lowered somewhat when storage stocks increase discouraging production when there is heavy storage. Incidentally, since corn storage began some 15 years ago the government has never lost a cent on the operation.

"It is probable that increased hog production in a couple of years will consume surplus corn and meat will again become plentiful. The dairymen who has not netted good profits during high prices will again see cheaper feeds. Milk is not in surplus and should not become so for a long time at least."

Thomas Jefferson's "Manual of Parliamentary Practice" is still used by the senate and popular assemblies all over the world.

Arlington High goes back to work

by LOIS KROEBER

Old Arlington Hi breathes a sigh of relief. It was June, 1948, and once again all the students were gone and she could rest. Her classrooms had been used quite strenuously during the past months, and they had proved insufficient, as had the old wooden bleachers on the football field. She needed these three months' rest to recuperate and prepare for the increased enrollment expected in the fall.

Now, in September, it's quite a different story. Yes, the enrollment did establish a new record, and for several days there were many harassed-looking pupils (and teachers, too, for that matter) rushing around the halls between classes. But look what has happened: New, spacious, well-lighted rooms have been completed; the busy counselors have been given private offices; sturdy steel bleachers have been built; the cafeteria has been re-staffed and given new equipment; and a greater variety of courses has been offered to the 807 students.

Take, for example, the science department. Last year physics and chemistry classes had to be conducted in small rooms above the offices because the new addition was not yet completed. Now, however, these two classes meet in large, well-equipped rooms in the upper story of the new wing. They are painted in pastel shades, and long windows permit a maximum of sunshine. The biology room, located on the first floor, has gaily decorated wallpaper and a modern greenhouse. Incidentally, some of the more unusual inhabitants of this room include a live alligator, an aquarium of fish, and two sentimental lovebirds named "Bill" and "Coo." Students in these classrooms are seated at tables having an acid-resisting top and equipped with gas burners and a set of drawers for each pupil.

FROM THE LOWER story of the west wing can be heard a steady "click-clack-click." Why? It's the new home of the commercial department! Four rooms in this section house classes in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, office practice, dictation and transcription, and general business. Formerly these classes were scattered over various parts of the building, but now they are centralized in their own wing.

Future actresses and actors receive training in the new dramatics class, while aspiring musicians and music lovers take advantage of the courses in harmony and arrangement and music appreciation. These classes, all of which are being conducted this year for the first time, have a large enrollment.

The pupils are not the only ones to benefit from the classroom changes. Two private offices were outfitted for Mr. Harold Slickemeyer, Director of Guidance, and Miss Hazel Beverly, Counselor. These were made from an old English room, and both have easy access to the main school offices. Mrs. Fred Hohenhorst, girls' physical education teacher, and Miss Ethel Riordan, guidance counselor, also have new offices. Male members of the teaching staff now have a place of their own to congregate during free periods: a men's faculty room.

ANY HOUSEWIFE will agree that planning and cooking meals for 500 to 600 hungry adolescents is a difficult task, and this year the cafeteria is well-equipped to tackle it. A dishwashing machine has been installed in addition to a new hot water heater. Students help in the after-lunch cleanup by returning their own trays and placing dishes and silver in certain places.

Last Friday night the several thousand football fans who watched Arlington win its first game were sitting on another addition to the school: new steel bleachers. Alumni from the classes of 1941, '42, '43, and '44 helped to pay for this much needed ed stadium. The approximate seating capacity is 1970, with a section for reserved seats included. A new flagpole, not yet delivered, has been purchased for the athletic field by the school "A" Club.

Yes, Arlington Hi certainly changed during the summer months. With the growth of the town the enrollment skyrocketed, but our school was prepared for it. In the woodshop, in the typing classes, in biology, in the cafeteria—the students are offered the best available. And the school, with the town, will continue to grow and improve. Here's to our school—Arlington Heights can be proud of it!

Arlington man forgoes vacation to serve on jury

Walter Habersichter, 22 Kennicott ave., Arlington Heights, was due to leave on his vacation. Instead, he is serving on jury. He had looked forward to an enjoyable fishing trip, but felt jury service was a civic obligation of any citizen. He will do his fishing next year.

Walter has always been ready to help out on community affairs and his decision to give up his vacation was not a surprise to those who know Walter.

Preventing

Stomach Ulcers
by SIEBURG DRUG CO., Inc.

Stomach ulcers can be controlled and expensive operations avoided if a physician is consulted at the first sign of stomach disorder.

Usually the symptoms of stomach ulcers consist of gnawing pains in that region. Many people are sure this is indigestion and they take so called "reliefs."

Self-diagnosis and self-medication are unwise and may be harmful. Every day you delay in seeing a physician your recovery is postponed that much longer.

The choice of a pharmacist to fill your doctor's prescription is an important decision... and should be based on an established reputation for compounding quality medicine skillfully and accurately.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. When acknowledging an introduction and one wishes to avoid the formal, "How do you do?" wouldn't it be all right to say, "I am so glad to meet you?"
A. Yes; this expression is proper if one can say it sincerely, without affectation.
Q. If one is eating and takes a mouthful of food that is too hot, would it be all right to take it from the mouth?
A. No; take a drink of water as quickly as possible, but do so without attracting attention.
Q. What would be a good excuse to offer if one wishes to decline an invitation that one does not care to accept?
A. An earlier engagement for that day or evening would probably be the best excuse.
Q. Is it proper to send wedding invitations to persons who are in mourning?
A. Yes; although these friends are not expected to attend, they should not be slighted.
Q. Which edge of the knife should point towards the plate when placing the silver on the table?
A. The cutting edge of the knife.
Q. After returning home, how long should one wait before writing the bread and butter letter to one's hostess?
A. This kind of letter should be written as soon as possible after one's return home.

Q. What dishes are already laid on the dinner table before the guests are seated?
A. A cold side dish, or relish (hors d'oeuvre).
Q. When a new acquaintance leaves and says, "I am very glad to have met you," what reply should one make?
A. Merely respond with a cordial "Thank you."
Q. Is it all right to eat very fine-cut and crisp shoestring potatoes with the fingers?
A. Yes, unless the dinner is formal. A good method, when in doubt, is to see how the hostess is eating a certain dish and then follow her example.
Q. How far in advance of the wedding may one send gifts to the bride?
A. Usually ten days or two weeks before the wedding. This gives the bride ample time to acknowledge them.

Summer travel at record highs

Cook County residents increased their pleasure motor travel 15 per cent this summer over the all-time record a year ago, Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, reports. During August the number of Illinois cars visiting distant Zion National Park in Utah was exceeded only by the cars from Utah and neighboring California. More than 900 Illinois cars carried 2,949 visitors from Chicago and downstate to Zion National Park during August. Routing requests of the Chicago Motor Club's touring bureau verify the indications of attendance data at national parks that Illinois motorists enjoyed a greater share of the increased motor travel than most regions. Compared to a 15 per cent increase in motor travel among Illinois motorists, the estimated national increase is 10 per cent. This summer's attendance by automobile at Yellowstone National Park was 8.1 per cent greater than the previous all time high in 1947. The number of cars increased 6.6 per cent, indicating a trend not only for greater car use in pleasure travel but more passengers per car, the Club's touring bureau reports. The Chicago Motor Club estimates that 60 million persons vacationed by automobile this summer, spending an average of $100 each, for a total of 6 billion dollars.

Western Electric Fall Frolic dance at Medinah club

First dance of the autumn season for members of the Western Electric company's Hawthorne club, the Fall Frolic, will be held at the Medinah country club on Friday, September 24. The party spot, near Lake St., just west of Route 53, is expected to attract 2,000 dancers. R. I. Vasumpaur, 11 Hillside ave., Prospect Heights, is a member of the committee arranging plans for the dance. Two orchestras will play for dancing. Jimmy Blade's band, starring Pat Willis as vocalist, will alternate with the tunes of Bobby Kuhn and his Midnite Sons. The Medinah club's outdoor dance floor is expected to be open to allow dancers to take advantage of balmy September weather. Floor show entertainment of outstanding talent from loop night spots will be an added feature of the evening's program.

Realtor cuts Plum Grove Woodlands prices 25 per cent

Wm. H. DePue, Palatine Realtor, revealed this week he has positive orders to liquidate Plum Grove Woodlands property at once. The property was originally subdivided eight years ago, with appraisal established, considering the beautiful trees, terrain, creek, winding roads, etc. $10,000 restrictions were also set to insure proper development. When the government ceiling on housing was set at $10,000, activity was stopped in Plum Grove. At this time, Mr. DePue reports, prices are being cut to the core, with the reasonable land prices set eight years ago being reduced 25%. Mr. DePue advises residents of this area to drive out to see these valuable homesites while the 40 parcels last. Mr. DePue has opened an office on the property, and can be found there every day. His phone out there is Palatine 411-R-2. Office is located 2 1/2 miles south of the Palatine depot on Plum Grove road.
